

Mr. John Deere Contest

Lowcountry Strawberry Festival

Saturday, April 18, 2020 - 1PM

Purpose of Contest:

Above all else, Boone Hall Plantation and Boone Hall Farms wants The Mr. John Deere Contest to be a fun and enjoyable experience for the little boys, their families, and visitors to the Lowcountry Strawberry Festival.

It is designed to do just that. Each contestant will receive a participation recognition prize package awarded on stage regardless of the outcome of the competition.

Contest Rules:

- 1. Entry is for the first 25 boys entered, 3-7 years of age. However, Boone Hall Plantation reserves the right to make exceptions to the above age stated for participation. Entry fee is $25.00 most of which will be used to buy the prize packages and awards for the competition. All contestants must have turned in an entry form and entry fee by Monday April 13, 2020.
2. The contestants are requested to wear some sort of farmer outfit for the competition. However, we don't want this to be a hardship or a reason for not participating. This part of the contest is designed to add to the fun and color of The Lowcountry Strawberry Festival and the Mr. John Deere Contest. As an alternative, contestants will be allowed to wear whatever they choose, if the outfit is appropriate and in good taste.
3. The judges will determine the winner of the contest and the judges' decision will be final.
4. All contestants are requested to be dressed and present at the entrance to the festival by 12:30pm on the day of the competition. A representative from the competition will be on hand at the entrance with a list of the contestants. The accompanying parent/guardian and contestant will then be directed to the staging area for the competition and given further instruction. Please plan to arrive early as traffic may be backed up for this popular event.
5. Admission for the contestant and one accompanying parent or guardian to The Lowcountry Strawberry Festival is included in the entry fee. Any other family members or friends must pay admission before entrance to the festival or the competition. No exceptions. Admission is $12 for adults, $5 children (ages 2-11), children 1 and under are FREE with adults.
6. Once the competition is underway, each contestant's name will be called; the contestant will walk across the stage, stand briefly in front of judges, and walk off stage. We will have people stationed stage side to help the boys on and off the stage. It is preferred that they walk unassisted across the stage. However, if a child gets confused or has difficulty crossing the stage, he can be assisted to do so. We prefer parents/guardians stay in the audience seating area, but if a boy gets upset and needs help from Mommy or Daddy then that parent or guardian will be allowed to help their child at their discretion. Again, we want this to be fun for everybody.
7. The Winner of the Mr. John Deere Contest will:
  - *Receive a handsome crown and that will be his as he will be Mr. John Deere 2020.
  - *Receive an Exciting Prize Package
